

BOISE BUNKO BABES FOR BOOBS

1st Annual
Bunko for Breast Cancer
Saturday, October 10, 2009

McCleary Auditorium, Saint Alphonsus, Boise
Game Prizes, Raffle Prizes, Gift Baskets, Silent Auction

One in eight women in the U.S. will be diagnosed with breast cancer, but local players of a game called Bunko are doing their part to better those odds. Ladies from all over the Treasure Valley will be throwing down for a fun evening dedicated to friendship, dice rolling, prizes, and for a greater cause—women battling breast cancer. All proceeds benefit the Breast Care Center at Saint Alphonsus Hospital, providing mammograms to women who cannot afford screenings.

Bunko is a simple dice game that women all over the nation are playing. If you wish to participate in this event, you will need to complete a reservation form and return with your $25 prior to 9/30/2009. Your entry will reserve a place at a Bunko table and you will receive one complimentary raffle ticket and a “Pink Lady” drink ticket! Additional raffle tickets for great prizes will be available for purchase during the event. Bunko tables will be assigned based on registration dates, so it is critical that you register in advance. If you want to be seated as a group, you will need to indicate the members of your group and the group leader on your registration form. The only way we can guarantee special seating requests is if you have a group of 12 or 16 and we receive a completed registration form along with donations payable to Saint Alphonsus Breast Care Center.

Get in the spirit by:

- Bringing a friend, a table (4), or an entire group (12 or 16) to play with us
- Making a cash donation
- Donating a prize for the raffle or a gift basket
- Having your Bunko group donate their October pot
- Wearing pink that night!
